Come To The Auction

The Haliburton Rotary Club are staging another mammoth auction sale in the Haliburton community arena Saturday, July 8 and an advertisement in this paper will list some of the many articles that are to be offered for sale.

Space does not permit us to list many of the articles for sale here but we note that some 15 Quebec heaters in excellent condition and also 15 mattresses are on the block. Not so many hand operated lawn mowers as last year, but we note that a power mower is among articles listed.

We imagine cottage own-articles that would be useful around their summer homes,

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER . . .

The July 1 week end saw a wonderful influx of summer guests and while on our way to the post office this morning we counted 10 cars from, south of the border parked along Highland St.
We do hope our weather will improve, in fact it was so cool here on Tuesday morning we would not have been surprised if it had snowed.

Merchants in Haliburton started their revival of Saturday night shopping on July 1 and while not all are agreed on the success of the venture the majority seemed to be more than satisfied with the results.

Debra Barry, two year old daughter of Mrs. Ruby Barry slipped momentarily away from the attention of her mother and stepped into the centre of Highland St. on Saturday night. Driving down the street was Leslie Shelley, who despite trying desperately to miss the young child ran into her, but a slight cut in the head was the extent of her injuries.
According to witnesses the driver could in no way be blamed for the accident. Constable Cook of the OPP investigated the accident.

When you hear the opinion expressed that it won't be long now until they will be pulling up the tracks on the Lindsay and Haliburton branch line of the CNR, it would be wise to take such remarks with a grain of salt.
When we chanced to go down to the local depot on Friday afternoon last we were surprised to see no less than three diesel engines in the yard. A few minutes later we saw something that has not greeted our eyes for some time when no less than 12 passenger coaches hauled by two locomotives pulled down the track. One person remarked that you would not often see as large a train as that on the main lines.

Karine Orlando, aged seven, of Scarboro had a narrow escape from drowning on Saturday afternoon last. It would appear that while involved. The Buick ran into the side of the truck and

in doing so cut the brake lines. Jim, when he saw the brakes would not hold backed down the hill into a bank but
in doing so upset the load of gravel that he was carrying. OPP Constable Cook investigated the accident.

The members and adher-ents of the Haliburton United Church have started giving serious consideration to the building of a new sanctuary. Drawings of the proposed building can be seen at the rear of the church auditorium. The drawings, we might add, are the work of a local boy, Grant Robertson. Personally, we were greatly impressed with these new plans which we feel will ultimately see the construction of a place of worship that will be something the citizens can view with a justifiable amount of pride. This area is becoming the summer home of an increasing number of citizens from not only Canada, but south of the border as well. Every town needs and welcomes new homes and places of business which reflect progress in a material way, but we must not be unmindful of our spiritual needs. The present church has served well down through the years, but like a car that has traveled 100,000 miles, it is in constant need of repair and those who are in favor of a new church feel that we in maintaining the present edifice are just throwing good money after bad, as it were.

This area had no highway fatalities over the holiday week end, however, we are informed that there was a collision on Long Lake hill on the Kennis road. From what we can learn a 1960
Buick driven by Robert Winterburn of Toronto and a Dysart municipal truck
driven by James Inglis were involved. The Buick ran into the side of the truck and

in doing so cut the brake
lines. Jim, when he saw the brakes would not hold backed
down the hill into a bank but
in doing so upset the load of
gravel that he was carry-
ing. OPP Constable Cook investigated the accident.

Mr. W. R. Curry, chairman of the crippled children's committee, has informed us that he will be out of town for a month and anyone seeking aid in this respect is advised to contact either Messrs. Harold Herlihey, Bernard Davidson or Mervyn Robertson.

Alex Salmond of Hamburg,
N.Y. caught a beautiful pickerel Wednesday morning while fishing in Loon Lake.
This fine fish measured 30 inches and weighed 8 3/4 lbs.

Orangemen from the county of Haliburton will be converging on Bobcaygeon Wednesday, July 12 where they will commemorate the glorious deeds of the forefathers
at Aughrim, Enniskillen, Derry and the Boyne. A bus will leave Haliburton at 10 a.m. and we understand the return fare will be $2. In this connection we might say L.O.L. 975 Haliburton will be parading without one of their most faithful members in the person of Wesley McDonald. Mr. McDonald, we are glad to say, is making satisfactory progress after undergoing surgery in Ross Memorial Hospital. I think it was in 1913 that I recall seeing Wesley McDonald marching with the Harburn lodge and I may be wrong but I doubt if he ever missed a July 12 parade since.

Mervyn Everall of Hali-burton stood first in his class of first year theology at Wycliffe College. Merrill Baicollison on Long Lake hill obtained a second class
on the Kennis road. From
what we can learn a 1960
Buick driven by Robert
Winterburn of Toronto and
a Dysart municipal truck
driven by James Inglis were

LUTTERWORTH

Long before white settlers invaded the land drained by the Gull River waters, the Indians were supposed to have discovered a location in Lutterworth township where high grade silver ore appeared near the surface in large quantities.

Although Indians of the forest tribes were not generally skilled in working metals, the story goes that those involved melted their silver into ingots which they stored at the mine site with the intention of selling their treasure at the white settlements in the south.

Having heard how the unscrupulous Yankee traders cheated his red brothers, the wily chief of the band determined that his tribesmen should not lose their birth right.

In spite of his efforts to keep the silver a secret, the story leaked out and the chief was warned that a party of soldiers had been dispatched to seize the booty for the Crown.

Like the Incas of the Andes who carried off the wealth of Cuzco rather than yield it to the Spaniards, this chief also took stern measures. With the aid of his most trusted followers, he concealed the ingots and sealed off the entrance to the mine in such a way that only those who had hidden this treasure trove could ever find it again.

A Toronto Telegram of May 1957 quotes Peter Grozelle, a descendant of one of Miner's Bay's first pioneer families on the subject: "I've got a pretty good idea where the mine would be, if it exists. Personally, I think it's just a good story." Mr. Grozelle goes on to tell how half a century previous two 75 year old residents of the Rama Indian reserve, calling themselves Jacob Henry and Chief Robert Sawyer, appeared at Miner's Bay with a tattered map which they claimed would lead them to the silver their forefathers had concealed. For two years they searched the maze of lakes, rivers and caves in the barren highlands west of Highway 35, supporting their simple needs by weaving baskets which they sold to buy provisions.

As so often happens to the seekers after lost riches, tragedy ended their quest. During the second winter, a devastating blizzard overtook the two elderly men when they were returning from Minden across the ice. Touched by its icy fingers Jacob Henry froze to death and his companion, stricken by the loss, abandoned the search to return to his own people at Rama.

What of the king's ransom in silver? Those who love colorful legends like to believe that it rests in the cave where the wise chieftan placed it for safety so long ago "between three lakes, near the place where water runs under the rocks."

Lutterworth township abounds in lakes and running water so the treasure hunter can take his pick of many locations which fit the ancient description. Perhaps some day one of these will yield up its secret and Miner's Bay will at last literally earn its name.

Pen Pictures Of Parliament

by C. W. HODGSON, M.P.

It looks as if parliament will at least continue in session until the end of the coming week. It might even continue for a week after that if it is to complete the legislative business the government considers should be cleaned up before taking a summer recess.

When adjournment is reached sometime in July, one thing appears certain and that is both House of Parliament will be reassembled in September to wind up the remaining business of the present session.

Talks between representatives of the government and opposition parties in recent days about mutually agreeing on an early adjournment date haven't gotten very far.

The on-and-off series of negotiations encountered a stalemate although the government voiced its willingness to go as far as it reasonably could to meet the majority desire of members to have available to them the summer months of July and August and be with their families.

The other day in the House of Commons, Prime Minister Diefenbaker was questioned by opposition parties about adjournment prospects. He said there were certain matters that required to be dealt with before the summer adjournment.

There was the budget, and the resolution and bills under the budget; the Canadian National Railways financing bill which cannot be postponed; and there was the question of dominion provincial fiscal relations. There was also the government's tariff bill dealing with goods and commodities of a class or kind similar to those produced in Canada, which the House of Commons adopted but which the Senate is "bucking" with a proposed drastic amendment.

Further, there was need for providing interim supply over the summer recess for those government departments whose estimates have not been fully dealt with.

Also there was a short matter connected with the supplementary estimates having to do with the provision of the necessary funds for assistance in coal areas in Cape Breton; and the bill increasing war veterans' allowances.

The prime minister incidentally, threw out the suggestion that if opposition members wanted to get home soon, better progress could be made if they were more co-operative and forget political slants for a while.

The budget and the bill for the dismissal of James E. Coyne from his $62,000 per year job as governor of the Bank of Canada, with his pension raised to $25,000 a year by his directors are presently in the political spotlight. This is more than double what the prime minister of Canada receives in the way of pay, and eight times as much pension.

Debate on the 1961-62 budget, presented in the commons by finance minister Fleming, has drawn to a close. First the sub-amendment of the CCF was voted down and later the Liberal amendment to the government's motion for adoption of the budget. Defeat of the CCF motion saw the Liberals voting with the CCF, but they lost out by a vote of 122 to 36. The Liberal amendment was also swamped. Vote for adoption of the budget is about to be taken and its passage by an overwhelming majority is conceded.

The budget makes no changes in personal or corporation taxes, and volunteer firemen will be pleased to know they are allowed income tax relief on amounts up to $300.

The excise tax of 7½% on passenger cars has been wiped out. No change is made on consumer taxes on liquor or tobacco. All told, the budget provides total tax reductions of $65 million in the current fiscal year, ending March 31 next, or $100 million in a full year. A deliberate policy of depreciation of the Canadian dollar in terms of U.S. funds was announced.

The finance minister, by depreciating the Canadian dollar in terms of U.S. funds, aims to raise exports and lessen imports. He hopes also to be able to bring down interest rates and by "an appropriate mixture of fiscal, financial and commercial policies to create more jobs, stimulate production and to improve the general state of the economy."

The repeal of the 7½% excise tax on passenger cars is to inject new life into the Canadian automotive industry, increasing employment. Already the reductions in the prices of vehicles have been announced by three large Canadian automobile manufacturing companies.

There are a number of other budget changes. The short, blunt bill to oust Governor Coyne from the Bank of Canada has received initial reading in the commons, and debate on it in the second reading stage has been started.

The commons is expected to give its third and final reading this week. It will then be sent over to the senate for its passage.

The bill, without mentioning Mr. Coyne by name, briefly states that the office of bank governor will become vacant immediately after the measures receives royal assent following its O.K. by the two houses of parliament. The governor's seven year term of appointment in 1954 was normally to expire next December 31.

The finance minister emphasized in his budget speech there had been nothing personal between him and the bank governor. He said, for one thing, he had told the governor the "harm" which he, the governor, had done in public speeches but the governor said he withdrew nothing.

"Rather than allow Mr. Coyne to continue to stand in the way of constructive and expansionist measures of a kind which he had publicly opposed," the finance minister said at one stage, "the government asked him to resign. This budget and Mr. Coyne were simply not compatible."

A contribution of $27,300 has been given to the Ross Memorial Hospital under the national health grant program. This should help make the old part of the hospital equal to the new building, in comparison.

Fifty men are employed on the repairs of the Trent canal system, as well as the regular lock masters, bridge tenders plus a few extra on bridges, locks, etc.

The government dredge started as early as possible and will be operating steadily until the end of the year. There is a considerable amount more dredging than can be completed this year.

Tenders are out for a 60 ft. addition to the Feneion Falls dock at Cameron Lake. The work of changing the locks, etc., will be started on October 1. Beaverton harbor repairs should be completed this year. Tenders are also out for two new lock houses to be constructed.

The water is running from the Raven Lake watershed into the Gull River waters, and this will supplement the water that might be held above low water mark on two of the Haliburton lakes and the Minden river, and give the Trent water system more water in the Victoria and Peterboro areas.

Statistics show that there will be more cabin cruisers and boats of all kinds using the Trent waters this year than ever before, and an increase in tourist and traffic on all modes of travel and communication is expected this year.

OBITUARIES

Allen Thomas Barry

On Sunday morning, June 4 the community was saddened by the sudden passing of Allen Barry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barry, in his 50th year.

He owned and operated his farm in West Guilford and did extensive carpenter work in and around this community.

On Wednesday morning, May 31, Mr. Barry was working on the old Tice Barry farm house when he fell, seriously injuring himself and was rushed to the Haliburton Red Cross hospital where he died the following Sunday.

Left to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barry and Irie of West Guilford, William of Maple Lake and Ethel (Mrs. Orm Fader) of Toronto, also several nieces and nephews.

The many floral tributes and friends who called showed the high esteem in which Mr. Barry was held.

Funeral services were held at William Barry's and then to the Maple Lake United Church, Rev. D. W. Staples and Mr. Stuart Wilson officiated. Pallbearers were Lorne, Arthur, Clifford, Karl, and Murry Barry and Arvine Bird.

Interment was in the Maple Lake cemetery.

His cheery and helpful nature will be sadly missed by all.

No more will we see his figure,

No more will we hear him call

Except in our memories ever

He will never fade at all.

We will always feel him near us,

We will always hear his voice,

We know he is up there waiting

For the time when we all can rejoice.

Vera Mildred Robertson

Vera Mildred Robertson passed away on June 21, 1961 at the Red Cross hospital, Haliburton at the age of 63. Mrs. Robertson was the wife of the late Rev. W. J. Robertson who predeceased her in 1957.

Born in Verulam township Mrs. Robertson was the eldest daughter of Frederick Humphrey and Eva Sanderson and received her education in Dunsford and later married William James Robertson.

Following a stroke which left her partially paralyzed the deceased had been in apparently fair health until June 18, 1961 when she suffered another stroke while attending church service.

After Mr. Robertson's death Mrs. Robertson had made her home in Haliburton.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jack Bird (Mary) and Mrs. Maxwell Bird (Evelyn) of Haliburton and two sons, Douglas of Pickering and Murray of Weston and four grandchildren. Also surviving are one sister Mrs. Morgan Lewis (Norma) of Midland and one brother Harold of Jarvis, Ont.

Mrs. Robertson rested at the Baptist parsonage, thence to Lakeside Baptist Church for service at 3 p.m. June 24 officiated by Rev. John E. Smith.

New Iron Fireman CUSTOM Mark II oil furnace pays for itself in short time—burns absolutely clean

This 7-room Portland home is one of the many in which the installation of the unique new Iron Fireman CUSTOM Mark II oil furnace has resulted in outstanding fuel savings and new comfort, compared with old-style heating. Here the oil consumption in the previous year was 1441 gallons, but with the CUSTOM Mark II it was reduced to 803 gallons—a whopping big saving of 638 gallons—or over $90.00. The secret is that the CUSTOM Mark II oil furnace, with VoluMetric firing, supplies its own forced draft: It operates without chimney draft. This means 100% combustion; with no soot, no smoke—and remarkable fuel savings. There's nothing else like it on the market!

Why don't you see how much this oil furnace can save for you. There's no obligation and no charge for a complete heating survey. Don't waste precious fuel dollars this winter. Instead enjoy wonderful indoor comfort at new low cost.

*Other users from coast to coast report savings ranging up from 18.1%.

In Memoriam

McPhadden—In loving remembrance of our dear sister, Kathleen, who passed away one year ago, July 10, 1960:

We little knew when we awoke that morn
The sorrow the day would bring,
The call was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one we love so dear.
Sometimes it's hard to understand Why some things have to be;
But in his wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see.
God gave us strength to face
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose her
No one will ever know.

—Lovingly and sadly missed by her sisters Lavina, Leona and Audrey (McGuire).

McPhadden—In loving memory of our dear sister and aunt, Kathleen, who passed away July 10, 1960:

Beside your grave we often stand
With hearts both crushed and sore.
Silent till the sweet words come
Not lost but gone before.
God knows how much we miss her
He counts the tears we shed
And whispers, "She only sleeps,
Your loved one is not dead."
So we'll be brave dear Kelly
And pray to God each day;
And when he calls us home to you
Your smile will guide the way.

—To dearly loved to be forgotten and ever remembered by her sisters Joan and Josephine, brother-in-law Clair, nieces and nephews.

Pearsell—In loving memory of my dear sister Mollie, who passed away July 9, 1956:

In tears I saw you sinking,
I saw you fade away,
My heart was almost broken,
You fought so hard to stay.
But when I saw you sleeping
So peacefully free from pain
I could not wish you back,
dear,
To suffer that again.

—Ruby.

Minden W.I.

Twenty-six attended the June picnic meeting of Minden W.I. Guests included Mrs. Scott, district president from Fenelon Falls, accompanied by Mrs. Alan Broken-shire, secretary treasurer of west Victoria and Mrs. Lean, vice president, of Powles Corners. Mrs. B. J. Walker was hostess at her cottage on Mountain Lake.

Mrs. A. Kernohan, president, conducted the meeting with the usual opening exercises.

The roll call consisted of "your secret pall" and the revelations created much amusement. New names for 1961 were given out by the secretary, Mrs. Sears, who also gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Angus Coulter read the minutes of the May meeting and letters of appreciation from patients in hospitals and shut-ins.

The president gave a report on the pleasure derived from the bus trip May 17 to Niagara Falls. Fifty ladies enjoyed this trip.

Mrs. Fairfield gave a report of the district annual held May 25 at Cobocok. There were 106 delegates from the 13 branches attending and it proved a very profitable day.

A committee was appointed to meet with the agricultural board regarding the refreshment booth at the fall fair.

Mrs. Scott then addressed the branch, first a resume of the new hand book with practical suggestions; secondly, Mrs. Scott spoke of the advantages derived from the project of a 4-H club for teenage girls and was hopeful that Minden should sponsor this home economic education.

Mrs. Scott then proceeded to give an inspirational resume of our work in general and the history of our institute achievements and gave the very interesting history of the authors of our institute ode and the creed.

Mrs. Kernohan thanked the speaker and after singing "The Queen" the meeting closed with the singing of "Table Grace."

Tables were set on the shady lawn overlooking the lake and the members and visitors sat down and enjoyed a picnic supper.

WEST GUILFORD

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Barry in the Green Canoe lounge with 10 members and one visitor.

Business was conducted as usual. Picnic and bazaar plans were made. At this meeting the ladies were pleased to have as their special speaker, Mr. John Hill from Lochlin who very ably gave an interesting talk on the subject of retarded children and what was trying to be accomplished for them. The facts and figures Mr. Hill gave were interesting and amazing to all, and we trust this small group shall be able to carry out their desires and plans in this worthy cause.

Mr. Hill went on to say this could be made possible only with aid of every citizen, church worker and of course the interested individual. We understand a cheque for $25 was donated and given to Mr. Thos. Irwin from the Community Guild.

We trust everyone shall get behind this fine undertaking and make their dream for a school for these kids come true.

The conference held at the Gospel Chapel on Sunday was well attended, even though the weather was wet and cold. Around 100 sat down to a most delicious supper. Special speakers were on hand including Rev. Stuart Wilson's brother of Toronto.

The recreation club has had some work done on their club house building. New cupboards have been installed. We feel a lot of credit goes to these ladies. All work is for the benefit of the young people and to help make a place more suitable for school picnics and ball games and winter sports.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lloyd (nee Jessie Simms) on the arrival of a baby boy, a brother for Linda and Christine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffin motored to Dorset to attend the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Titus were recent business visitors to Toronto.

Mr. Blaine Sisson is a patient in Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay. We trust he shall soon be able to return home again.

SPRING MEETING OF W.T.F.

The spring meeting of the Haliburton Women Teachers' Federation was held at Cedar Villa lodge on Friday, June 16.

The speaker was Dr. S. A. MacGregor of Toronto, head of dental surgery at the Sick Children's Hospital, and a lecturer at the dental college of the University of Toronto.

His topic "If I Were a Millionaire" challenged all to give not only money but of ourselves to the benefit of others.

Our new executive was installed with Mrs. Norman Brown as president. She thanked Mrs. Emily Loucks for her leadership this past year.

All those attending found the meeting to be enjoyable as well as stimulating.
